Annual Meeting

At the informational meeting last Sunday, January 14, a decision was made to postpone the annual meeting until February. Also at the meeting, it was announced that it has been mutually agreed upon that Pastor AJ will be leaving Christ the King. No final date has been decided due to the fact that Council needs to speak to Synod about our options. It would be difficult to vote on a budget that is now not accurate. Carol Strano and Joe Brunt, the Co-Presidents of Council, will be on hand after today's service to speak with anyone who has questions regarding the direction we should take Christ the King.

As in the past, we will continue to grow in our faith as God's servants and will continue to support each other. AJ started up small groups again and we will continue with this ministry. Nothing is more important than our church community and finding ways to serve God through Christ the King.

Ashes to Go

On Ash Wednesday (February 14), we will again be offering “Ashes to Go” in front of Redeemer Lutheran (corner of Chapin and Main Streets). The practice is a modern spin on the tradition of receiving a cross of ashes at the beginning of the holy season of Lent. Instead of sitting through a service, churches offering Ashes to Go give the Christian sign of penitence, a smudged cross of ashes on the forehead, to anyone who seeks it – even through a rolled-down car window. We will also provide bag lunches for those who need them.

Socks for Souls

Thank you for your donations! Recently the socks were distributed at the Soup Kitchen in Endicott. So, the Friday Morning group is collecting more... all varieties of socks, especially children’s sizes, which will be distributed to a local charity. Donations can be placed in the bin in the Café.

Community Hunger Outreach Warehouse (CHOW)

CHOW helps feed the hungry in our community year-round. Donations of food are needed! There is a blue barrel in the Entry Way for donations of non-perishable foods, such as cereal, instant potatoes, soups, and pasta.

Articles for the February Herald are due in the office by Tuesday, January 23.
